“Is the USA Sliding into Tyranny?”- the Theme for our Constitutional Conference to be held Oct 1, Sacramento, Double Tree Hotel. We hope you can attend this all-day conference that includes a delicious buffet luncheon and a wonderful line-up of outstanding speakers all revealing ways that our Constitution and freedoms are under attack and how we are slipping into tyranny. Each speaker, however, will also give us hope of what we must do to turn things around and stop this tyranny. You will also have the opportunity to meet and hear from conservative candidates running for office. (Please see enclosed flyer for the details and registration form. You can also register on line at our website - www.eagleforumofcalifornia.org.)

Khizr Khan, Islamic Law Muslim Agent?

Remember Mr. Khizr Khan who spoke at the Democrat Convention, the Muslim father of an American soldier who lost his life fighting in Iraq in 2006? Remember how Khan criticized Donald Trump for wanting to stop the flow of Muslims from coming into our country and he held up a copy of the US Constitution and told Trump to read it. And remember how Trump was raked over the coals for not showing Khan and his wife more respect.

Thanks to information sent by one of our readers, John Spring, an expert on the Middle East and Sharia Law, it turns out that Mr. Khan is an attorney who does not really believe in or support the U.S. Constitution himself. He is a Muslim who believes that Sharia Law should supersede our Constitution. He strongly promotes Muslim immigration that will make the possibility of Sharia Law more likely.

Khan states in his own legal writings that all laws enacted after the era of the Prophet Muhammed, more than 13 centuries ago, should be subordinate to Sharia law. This would include the U.S. Constitution.

When Kahn and his wife, Ghazala, took their oath to become U.S. citizens, they swore to uphold the U.S. Constitution. Spring asks, “Did Kahn become an American citizen under false pretenses... (Continued on Page 2)

LIAR Hillary's Very Revealing Picture: Hillary hired a new camera man and told him to never film her bottom half. Here is the angle he got. Because of her head blocking part of the second L of her name behind her, the only words that are shown in the picture are the big bold letters — LIAR — exactly what most conservatives believe she is.

“What a tangled web I weave, when at first I practice to deceive.” This wise old saying should have been memorized and applied early on in Hillary’s life. It would have saved her much grief and embarrassment over the years. As it is, she has created such a tangled web of lies, she can’t remember them herself and keeps getting herself into more and more hot water. Here are some of the most prominent ones:

Sniper Fire – During the 2008 campaign, Clinton said she came under sniper fire in Bosnia during the '90s. She went so far as to claim her group ran “with our heads down to get into the vehicles to get to our base.” Video of her actual arrival surfaced showing a very calm scene instead with people welcoming her and her daughter with flowers.

Immigrant Grandparents – When discussing immigrants hoping to win their vote, Clinton claimed “all my grandparents were immigrants.” The truth is only one grandparent was an immigrant. The other three had been part of America for generations.

Named after Sir Edmund Hillary – Hillary can’t even tell the truth about the origin of her own name. She claimed to be named after Sir Edmund Hillary, one of the first men to climb Mt. Everest. The only problem is, he did not climb Mt. Everest until Hillary was 6 years old.

Spring states that Sharia Law is the ultimate goal of all the radical Muslim warriors such as the Taliban and ISIS. He describes it as a very rigid, cruel law, “which requires beheadings or stonings for capital crimes and other cruel forms of punishment such as removal of fingers, hands and arms for lesser crimes and for no individual freedom.”

Spring adds, “So if you are going to strongly criticize Donald J. Trump for proposing “waterboarding ... then I would ask you why Khizr Khan, who accepts the cruel forms of punishment under Sharia Law, should be given so much sympathy and respect by the media, when he promotes an archaic cruel system that destroys liberty.”

Spring totally agrees with Donald Trump who proposed excluding Muslims in terrorist-controlled nations or any other foreigners from being allowed to enter the United States until they can be properly screened. This is not a violation of the U.S. Constitution as Khan stated, “but, rather, a necessity during these crucial times to sustain freedom...when vetting must become mandatory for our National Security against ISIS.”

when they left the White House. Fortunately, they did not get away with it. They had to return or pay for the items.

“Dead Broke” – In an interview, Clinton stated that she “came out of the White House not only dead broke, but in debt.” This is something even the left-leaning Politifact found to be false.

Suspicious Speaker Fees – Hillary and Bill amassed a personal fortune with “speaking fees” and payments from private sector political donors and foreign governments going into their “Clinton Foundation” in obvious exchange for future political favor. Fifty-five percent of people who met with her as Secretary of State, first donated to her foundation. It’s called “pay to play.”

Secret E-Mail Server Jeopardizing National Security – As Secretary of State, Hillary claimed her private e-mail server was set up in “accordance with the rules and the regulations in effect.” A federal judge disagreed, saying Clinton “violated government policy” when she used her private server to store official State Department messages. She disregarded the rules for the handling of sensitive national security information and much may have been leaked out. It is also believed the erased 30,000 e-mails would reveal the special deals made for political favors.

Benghazi Terrorist Attack – This was clearly the biggest lie of them all. Clinton failed to tell the truth about a terrorist attack that occurred on the anniversary of 9/11 that killed four Americans, who were supposed to be under her protection, at the American embassy in Benghazi, Libya. She claimed for weeks, that an insensitive YouTube video had incited the violence that occurred that night. Why?

Many believe it was to cover up the fact that Obama and Hillary were actually involved in “gun running,” bringing guns in through the embassy to aid the terrorists. Why? It has been a long-standing rule by rulers that they “need the best enemies money can buy” to keep their subjects in line with fear tactics. The special forces who were ready to rescue those in the embassy, but told to stand down, would have seen what was going on and reported the truth; that is why they could not be allowed in, and the four Americans were allowed to die.

“What Difference, at this Point, Does it Make?” When asked to answer questions in the Senate hearing investigating Benghazi, this is what Hillary callously answered. Well, Hillary, as we are in hopes you might soon find out, the truth does make a difference – no matter what point or after the fact, it is being revealed.

We know you are counting on the “newer” American voters to simply not remember or know about your and Bill’s checkered political and legal past. That is why it is up to us who do remember to reveal the truth of your many lies and the enormous web of deception you continue to weave.

Writer Daniel Gallington of the Washington Times reminds us of what life could be like if Hillary is elected:

Will the latest rupture in the Republican Party work to elect ‘crooked Hillary?’ Will horny old Bill — again — be on “intern patrol” in the White House and “feeling our pain”? These are the “truthful” parts of the lie that have most of us saying: “is this really the best we can do?”

Congratulations to Dorothy Bearss for Her Many Voluntary Service Awards: Long time Eagle Forum member, Dorothy Bearss of Port Hueneme, Ventura County, California, has recently been inducted into the Hall of Fame of the Oxnard Fraternal Order of Eagles #232, for her many years of volunteer service to them and to her church, the schools, the library and community.

Other awards she has received include one from the City of Oxnard for her faithful service to the South Oxnard Senior Center. She has a degree from Oxnard College. While attending school there, she realized they did not have a good variety of meaningful, conservative books in their library, so she donated over 50 and set up a wonderful display of some of the books.

Dorothy also received a letter of appreciation from the Seabee Chapel at the Ventura County Naval Base for over 200 hours spent in gardening and maintaining the front lawn of the chapel.

Dorothy is also a member of the Society of Military Widows on the base and a member of the CBC Federal Credit Union, which also honored her with a write up about her many hours of voluntary service in their recent summer newsletter.

Congratulations Dorothy! We are very proud of you!

4th MYSTERIOUS DEATH CONNECTED TO THE DNC IN LESS THAN A MONTH!!

Democratic staffer Seth Conrad Rich, only 27, was shot in his back multiple times on his way to meet with the FBI to discuss election fraud on 7/10/16.

UN official John Ashe, died suspiciously the day before he was set to testify as a top official against the DNC and Hillary Clinton on 6/22/16.

Victor Thorn, author of books exposing the Clintons, found dead of a gunshot wound on a mountain top near his home on 8/1/16.

Shawn Lucas, Lead Attorney in the Anti-Clinton DNC Fraud case and a Bernie Sanders supporter found dead at home on 8/4/16.

Five Mysterious DEATHS all Linked to Clinton: As one can see from the above information, four Americans, who were going to either reveal something about election fraud, the DNC and Hillary or had already written books exposing Hillary, were all found mysteriously dead between the time of June 22 – Aug. 4, 2016. Here is more info about their deaths followed by that of a fifth man:

Seth Rich was beaten before the shooting, supposedly the victim of an attempted robbery, but nothing was taken.

John Ashe “accidentally” crushed his own throat while lifting weights on June 22. The New York Post’s, p 6 reported his death was “conveniently timed” as he was scheduled to testify against the Clintons and the DNC.

Author Victor Thorn, had written extensively on the Clintons and their scandals. He was working on a new book and had top secret emails that would damage Clinton. He was found dead with a gunshot wound to the head. His death was ruled a suicide but those close to him said he would never have taken his own life.

Shawn Lucas, an attorney working to expose the DNC fraud case, was found dead in his bathroom, August 4, just days after he served papers to the DNC.

Could Information on Hillary’s Private E-Mail Server Have Caused the Death of a Fifth Man? Shahram Amiri, an Iranian nuclear scientist who helped the US obtain information about the Islamic republic’s covert nuclear program, was discussed on Hillary’s e-mail server nine days before he was returned to Iran in 2011, at first welcomed and then put into prison. On Sunday, August 7, he was delivered to his family dead, with rope marks around his neck, obviously hung for treason, according to the Washington Examiner.

Arkansas Senator Tom Cotton spoke on CBS Face the Nation and asked if Hillary’s reckless lack of security on her private server had anything to do with Amiri’s death?

“I’m not going to comment on what he [Amiri] may or may not have done for the United States government, but in the emails that were on Hillary Clinton’s private server, there were conversations among her senior advisers about this gentleman. That goes to show just how reckless and careless her decision was to put that kind of highly classified information on a private server. And I think her judgment is not suited to keep this country safe.”

A spokesperson for Iran’s judiciary made this statement about Amiri after his hanging: “This person who had access to the country’s secret and classified information had been linked to our hostile and No. 1 enemy, America, the Great Satan. He provided the enemy with vital and secret information...” (Notice, that in spite of all the concessions Obama has made to Iran, they still refer to America as “the Great Satan.”)

What's a Conservative to Do? By Sally Zelikovsky, attorney, founder and leader of the Bay Area Tea Party of San Francisco. She gave her permission to print the following excerpts from her article in American Thinker, 8/17.

It has become part of my morning routine to groan when I see the litany of negative articles about Donald Trump at nationalreview.com. Not that I'm a huge fan of his, but he did win fair and square and is the nominee.

Every day I receive emails voicing the same reaction to the constant barrage of scathing commentary about Trump from traditionally conservative sources. Perhaps the conservative punditry feels obligated to be self-critical. But, for those who backed other primary candidates, then put on their big boy pants and came to terms with supporting Trump -- or at least committed to vote for him -- this compulsion among the conservative chattering classes is dispiriting and causing a great deal of second-guessing - even panic!

Should I reconsider voting for Trump? Who else would I vote for? A vote for any other candidate or sitting out the election -- something I've never done before -- just increases Hillary's chances. I can't be part of that.

What's a conservative to do? And more importantly, what do these political soothsayers want from us? Are they simply grouching or malcontents who can't bring themselves to vote for Trump? I know they envision themselves as guardians of conservatism, but are they such purists that they are willing to ride their principles off a cliff? Isn't that a criticism often levelled at tea partiers?

Do they really know better than we do and, if so, shouldn't we heed their advice? And, what exactly is their advice? They whomp us up into a frenzy but offer no solutions. Short of forcing Trump out and the chaos that would engender, I don't think there are any solutions other than to vote for him -- after all, he is the most conservative candidate who can get elected...

For decades, GOP politicians, pundits, and leaders implored the base to vote for its candidate, whether he was liked or his views shared. Like obedient little lemmings, the base voted for the most conservative candidate who could get elected. By the time Romney ran, however, 3 million disgusted Republicans stayed home. They didn't want to vote for another establishment guy; someone who waffled too many times on important issues; someone whose past suggested he just might be another RINO who would turn on the very people who elected him.

Point is, all of our candidates -- including our 16 primary candidates -- have flaws. And it doesn't matter if you are Trump, Pence, Romney, or McCain -- the Democrats will exploit those flaws and go one step further manufacturing other weaknesses out of whole cloth.

These mythological flaws become so deeply embedded in the American psych, that they become the "truth" and voila! We are sexists, racists, homophobes, the 1%, and haters. Despite these real or imagined flaws, we loyal plebes stump, knock, call, fund, and vote for the nominee.

What is a conservative to do? Are we to "eat our own" and allow Hillary to win or vote for Trump?

We applaud when appropriate and wince (to ourselves) when they mess up. But we do not eat our own. And now, the very people who tell us to be good little Republicans are digging in their heels and cannibalizing Trump.

Isn't this a case of the pot calling the kettle black? For years elite Republicans and the conservative commentariat have cautioned the grassroots to be wary of riding their principles off a cliff, and now that is precisely what they do! If, by staying true to their conservative principles, they cannot in good conscience vote for Trump and ask us to do the same, haven't they saddled up their principles and giddy-yapped all the way to the nearest precipice?

Of course not, they clarify, as they don their superhero capes. By thwarting a Trump victory, they will be saving the GOP and conservatism from certain doom, not tumbling over the proverbial crag!

Call me jaded but, hello? Conservatism is already on life support and some of the very people who whine about Trump are responsible for its demise and for basically two reasons: first, the lack of political will, that is, the reckless and feckless behavior of Republican politicians who fail to follow through on campaign promises; and secondly, lack of political savvy, that is, Republican candidates do not know how to fight and, when they do fight, they bring a plastic spoon to a cage match. They don't have a message or the means to deliver one to targeted groups; they talk like egg heads walking on egg shells, they lack the creativity to hone a sound bite and repeat it over and over until it becomes part of the narrative. They're afraid to talk to the liberal media and, when they do, they are almost always on defense and fail to connect with viewers.

While the Democrats concoct successful, long-lasting mantras like "Bush Lied, People Died" and "No Blood for Oil," Republicans wring their hands and apologize when Trump says, "Obama is the Founder of ISIS." ... In 6 words, he gets his point across. It may not be lyrical or 100% factually accurate, but neither are Democrat slogans or ads. Those 6 words are a huge improvement over the norm of reciting ad nauseam that Obama created a vacuum in the Middle East that allowed ISIS to come to power and, here's the back story...zzzz.

The latter reaches political junkies; the former connects to the guy glancing at his TV over pasta. (Continued on p. 6)

Islam Terrorism Rising as Christianity is Waning in Europe – America be Warned - by Orlean Koehle:

My husband and I and two of our children recently had a 12-day trip to Europe in July. We saw beautiful sights in five countries – Austria, Hungary, the Czech Republic, Switzerland and Germany, but we also were there when four very disturbing acts of terrorism were going on.

My husband was born and reared in Germany. We used to live there when we were first married. We have made many trips there since to visit his relatives and friends. This was the first time, however, that we were actually afraid, and it made us wonder how soon more and more terrorism will be happening in America.

What has happened to Germany? In one year's time, 2015, Chancellor Angela Merkel, has brought in 1.1 million Muslim refugees and is bringing in 800,000 more this year. These are primarily (70%) young, strong-looking males, whom they are finding out could very well be already trained ISIS jihadists, determined to wipe out the infidels in whatever country they are in. These refugees have increased the amount of Muslims already in Germany by a huge percent. It is estimated that by 2020, 25% of Germany's population will be Muslim!

In the month of July, four acts of terrorism took place: three performed by Muslim refugees and the fourth by a German-born Muslim. ISIS took credit for all of them:

July 18 – Würzburg Germany, 20 people were attacked and wounded by a 17-year old Muslim Afgan refugee with an axe on board a train, and a lady was attacked outside the train. He was eventually shot by the police. This was the city we had just traveled through two days before.

July 22 – Munich, Bavaria, 3 teenagers inside a McDonalds were randomly shot and killed and seven outside in the mall with 21 others wounded. The killer was Ali Sonboly, age 18, who had dual Iranian and German nationality. He then shot himself.

July 24 – Reutlingen, Southern Germany, a 21-year old Syrian Muslim refugee killed his pregnant girlfriend with a machete and injured three others out on the street. A German man driving a BMW knocked the man down – having no other weapon. The police found the killer wounded on the ground and arrested him.

July 25 - Ansback Germany, Mohammed Daleel, a failed Syrian asylum seeker, who should have been deported but never was, decided to become a suicide bomber. When he was not allowed to enter a rock concert because his name was on a “watch list,” he blew himself up outside the concert hall wounding 15 others.

Acts of Terrorism in France also in July: We had just been in Europe a few days when we heard of the horrific event that occurred in Nice, France. We could have been there. Nice is one of our favorite places.

July 14 – Nice, France, 84 Killed and 202 wounded by Mohamed Bouhlel, a 31-year-old Muslim, who mowed people down with a truck. This was on July 14, Bastille Day, similar to our 4th of July. Thousands of people were out on the streets watching fireworks when they saw Bouhlel driving a large truck randomly mowing hundreds of people down. Some of the people killed and wounded were his fellow Muslims. Bouhlel was eventually killed by police bullets that shattered his truck's wind shield.

July 16 – Normandy France, a Catholic priest was killed by two Muslim men who came into his church during morning mass in the town of Saint-Etienne-du-Rouvray. The men forced the priest, Rev. Jacques Hamel, age 86, down on his knees and slit his throat on the altar. They also took four hostages, one of whom was also seriously wounded. A nun escaped and was able to notify the police. They killed the men as they left the Church.

Rape and Sexual Violence by Muslim Men is on the Rise: One of the worse attacks was New Year's Eve, 2015. Police in Cologne received more than 1,000 complaints from women, including 454 reports of sexual rapes. Police in Hamburg received complaints from 351 women, including 218 reports of sexual assault that took place on the same evening. Young teenage girls and women all over Germany are reporting that they are afraid to go shopping or out on the streets alone.

Christian Decline in Europe - Churches Being Turned into Museums, Concert Halls and Mosques: Since returning home, I have been doing much research on the rise of Islam in Europe and am so concerned I am writing a book about it. I have discovered that tens of thousands of Catholic and Protestant churches throughout Europe have been closed because of lack of attendance. They are being sold to the highest bidder – which in rare cases is the city which turns them into a museum or a concert hall. In Arnhem, Holland, the St. Joseph Catholic Church is now a skate board park. In most cases, the only bidder is the Islam religion which is converting thousands of empty Christian churches into Mosques or Muslim prayer halls. Islam is almost the only religion building new structures.

“Break the Cross” – Below is the cover of DABIQ, the official ISIS magazine. It shows a Muslim man on the roof of a Christian church bringing down the cross.

If anyone is doubtful about the real intent of ISIS, they should read this magazine. The writers blatantly spell out their mission -- to destroy Christianity, to tear down the crosses, to force us to convert to Islam or to be killed. They are proud of the recent acts of terrorism and the Muslim refugee jihadists, and they warn Christians everywhere to beware!

This should be a warning for all Americans. If Hillary is elected, she wants to greatly increase the number of Muslim refugees coming into the USA. Trump wants to stop them or drastically decrease them and vet them.

What's A Conservative to do? By Sally Zelikovsky
(Continued from page 4): Trump— love him or leave him — understands that the pasta-eating guy is the vote he has to reach; the hard-working family man or woman GOP leaders left behind and DNC policies destroyed...

It really isn't about the "anger" Trump has tapped into. It's because he is unlike any other politician. He is impolitic. He is the Anti-Politician. He's wearing a cape, too. And we now see how novel and magnetic those qualities can be.

For the first time in my life, I'm genuinely scared. I'm afraid that my children will raise families in a world that is alien to the America I cherish and the America their father immigrated to. I fear nefarious elements will become increasingly more powerful, subjugating non-compliant, religious, and conservative Americans. I dread the "anything goes" world we will soon inhabit where moral erosion and technological disruption create a Brave New Unrecognizable World of hedonism and listless-ness. The boundaries and reference points those of us over 35 grew up with are no longer there for our children and grandchildren. And worse, violence threatens our way of life at home and abroad but our progeny lack the physical and emotional wherewithal to protect each other and beat back the belligerents.

I am 100% certain that Hillary will further those odious ends. She will rule much the way Cersei advised her son Joffrey in Game of Thrones: "Someday, you'll sit on the throne and the truth will be what you make it."

“Someday, you’ll sit on the throne and the truth will be what you make it.”

Ain't that the truth! Do not waste one minute wondering if Hillary will regard her tenure in the Oval Office any differently. Do not be so naïve as to think we can fix it all by electing a Republican if she falters in her first term. We already have overwhelming proof of her criminality and corruption and yet, she skates. If elected, she'll be in power for eight years and the truth will be what she makes it -- of this I have no doubt. And there is nothing we will be able to do about it...

If Hillary gets elected, both sides of the Republican split will be to blame: (1) Trump will have been a flawed candidate who ran a horrible campaign, and (2) too many Republicans who refused to toe the party line and flayed Trump at every turn, either stayed home on Election Day, or voted for an alternative candidate or write-in or the unthinkable, the Queen of Thrones herself.

After eight years of Hillary scripting her truths, the damage will be incalculable; the clean-up, impossible. (Read the entire excellent article on the following cite: http://www.americanthinker.com/articles/2016/08/whats_a_conservative_to_do.html#.)
